PAUL WAS IN A STORM

(To the tune of "Row, Row, Row, Row Your Boat")

Paul was in a storm.
(Gently down the stream.)

He was tossed and turned around,
(Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily,)

In the giant sea.
(Life is but a dream.)

God pro-ected Paul,
He knew he would be saved.
An angel of the Lord was there,
He said, "Don't be afraid!"

Print enough copies for each student to have a full book. Cut on the dashed lines. Stack the left side sheets on top of the right side sheets to keep the pages in order. Punch out the indicated holes through all pages, then thread yarn through both holes and tie in a bow at the front to bind the booklet together.

(To the tune of "Amazing Grace")

For I'm not ashamed
(Amazing grace!)

Of the gospel of Christ,
(How sweet the sound,)

For it is the power of God
(That saved a wretch like me.)

Put on the gospel shoes.

Put on the helmet, too.

We wear it to obey-ey God,
The ar-armor of God.

PHILIPPI

(To the tune of "Three Blind Mice")

Paul and Silas,

Pat your lap.

(Three blind mice,)

In Philippi,

Pat your lap.

(Three blind mice.)

Beaten with rods,

Hit your fist into your palm.

(See how they run,)

Beaten with rods.

Hit your fist into your palm.

(See how they run.)

They were arrested and thrown in jail.

Push out with your hands.

(They all ran after the farmer's wife.)

They prayed and sang to God from there.

Make praying hands.

(She cut off their tails with a carving knife.)

He heard their cries and saved their lives,

Cup ears with hands.

(Did you ever see such a sight in your life,)

In Philippi . . . Philippi.

Pat your lap.

(As three blind mice? Three blind mice!)

The shield of faith comes next.

And then we have the sword.

The sword is the Word of God.

The ar-armor of God.
