

Encouraging the Churches Class Notes

- _____ inspired Paul to write the letters, or epistles, of the Bible.
- Paul wrote epistles to instruct believers in proper _____.
- Proper conduct is NOT _____ or speaking evil about other believers.
- Proper conduct IS treating other believers with _____, kindness, and forgiveness.
- And Paul wanted to _____ the church by telling them that he was thankful for them and prayed for them.
- Paul wrote to the churches to _____ and encourage them.

WORD BANK

Conduct
Encourage
Hating
Love
God
Instruct

Encouraging the Churches Class Notes Answer Key

Print one class notes for each student. Keep the answer key for your use.

1. God inspired Paul to write the letters, or epistles, of the Bible.
2. Paul wrote epistles to instruct believers in proper conduct.
3. Proper conduct is NOT hating or speaking evil about other believers.
4. Proper conduct IS treating other believers with love, kindness, and forgiveness.
5. And Paul wanted to encourage the church by telling them that he was thankful for them and prayed for them.
6. Paul wrote to the churches to instruct and encourage them.

WORD BANK

Conduct
Encourage
Hating
Love
God
Instruct